

3030.89

Miss Rose Mary Kutch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Kutch, 34 Railroad Street, Simpson, became the bride of Milo Robert Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Gardner, Waymart RD 2, Sept. 12, 1981.

The Rev. Edward Stanko officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony St. John's Byzantine Catholic Church, Forest City. White satin bows adorned the pews. The altar was decorated with white gladiola and orchid-tinted carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal length gown of white chiffon featuring a snugly fitted bodice of chantilly lace sprinkled with seed pearls, a demi-scoop neckline, decolletage back, long billowy lace sleeves with ruffled cuffs and empire waistline. Her double tiered skirt was edged with matching lace and fell over a lace underskirt, cascading into a full double-tiered cathedral train. The imported French illusion train fell from a chantilly lace Camelot sprinkled with seed pearls, and was edged in matching lace and pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white masterpiece roses and baby's breath.

Ann Marie Wilcha, Carbondale, was matron of honor wearing an aubergine qiana formal gown fashioned with a soft blouson enhanced with a set-in duchess neckline of Brussels lace on point d'esprit which formed the full Bishop sleeves above a flowing circular skirt. Her gatsby hat with face and pouf veiling was accented with side self-flowers. She carried a fan adorned with orchid elegance miniature carnations, daisies, pompons, and baby's breath. She also wore a matching hairpiece.

Attired identically to the honor attendant and carrying the same flowers were the bridesmaids, Beth Hauenstein, Aldenville, sister of the bridegroom, and Karen Robinson, Waymart.

Junior bridesmaid was Lisa Sceptia, Forest City, niece of the bride, attired in a light aubergine gown similar to the other attendants. She wore light aubergine daisies in her hair. Carrie Sceptia, niece to the bride, was flower girl carrying a basket of orchid elegance mini-carnations, lavender daisy pompons and baby's breath. She wore a matching hair piece.

Leonard Hauenstein, brother-in-law of the bridegroom was the best man. Ushers were Tom Fries, Aldenville, and Tom Robinson, Waymart RD 1. Bob Vinton, Waymart RD 2, was ringbearer.

A reception for 150 guests followed at the Browndale Fire Hall.

The bride graduated from Fell High School, and the bridegroom is a graduate of Western Wayne High School.

Following a wedding trip to Wildwood, N.J., and Lancaster, the couple will reside at Waymart RD 2.